Happy Mother's Day!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Creating a pastor's column for Mother's Day has some challenges for sure. This is because as a pastor and priest, I rejoice with some moms, grieve with others and ache for those who long to be mothers but for whatever reason are not. The last thing one wants to do is exclude anyone on this day.

I came across an article by a writer named Amy Young, a section of which I would like to share today with a few edits of my own. It is a litany about motherhood and as I read it, I see so many faces of women in our pews leading me to pray for them as I read through each strophe. It would be a good exercise today to ponder this list yourselves and pray for people in your own life.

- To those who gave birth this year—we celebrate with you!
- To those who lost a child this year–we mourn with you.
- To those who are in the trenches with little ones every day and wear the badge of food stains–we appreciate you!
- To those who experienced loss through miscarriage, or failed adoptions—we share your frustration.
- To those who walk the hard path of infertility– we walk with you. Forgive us when we say foolish things. We don't mean to make this harder than it is.
- To those who are foster moms, mentor moms, and spiritual moms – we need you!
- To those who have warm and close relationships with your children – we celebrate with you!
- To those who have experienced disappointment, stress heartache, or distance from your children–we pray for you.
- To those who lost their mothers this year – we grieve with you.
- To those who experienced abuse at the hands of your mother – we acknowledge your experience and pray for your healing.
- To those who lived through the testing of motherhood – we are better for having you in our midst.
- To those who are single and long to be married and mothering your own children – we mourn that life has not turned out the way you longed for it to be as yet.
- To those who placed children up for adoption — we commend you for your selflessness and remember how you hold that child in your heart.
- To those who suffered a wrong decision to terminate a pregnancy in an altered value system. We support you and remind you that you are not alone.
- And to those who are pregnant with new life, both expected and surprising –we anticipate with you!

I love this litany. It seems to speak to just about everything I see at our parish. I wish all of you a Happy Mother's Day. Mothering is not for the faint of heart and we have real warriors in our midst. I pray for the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary today. May she walk with you as you live out your maternal calling however God wills it!

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.

Marriage Banns

Be it known to all here present that Weston Boardman, son of John and Jamie Boardman and Michaela Wuycheck, daughter of John and Anne Wuycheck, of the parish of St. Bernadette Catholic Church, intend to be united in Holy Matrimony. Wherefore, we hereby admonish each and all that, if anyone of you has knowledge of an impediment existing which would prevent their marrying, whether it be an impediment of blood relationship, relationship through marriage, spiritual relationship, or of any other kind, you are bound to make it known to the pastor or the bishop so soon as possible. This is the third publication of the banns.

In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Before Almighty God, before the Holy Church and her faithful here assembled, we, the undersigned, have this day promised the eventual consecration of one to the other in the sacrament of matrimony, which is none other than the mystery of that great Sacrament — Christ and His beloved Spouse, the Church. May the divine Spirit with His grace and manifold gifts enlighten our minds and move our wills to spend the days of our engagement soberly, piously, and justly, awaiting the blessed consummation of that union to which we have been called and to which we are solemnly pledged.

In Thee, O Lord, do we put our trust.
Let us nevermore be confounded.

My Sheep Hear My Voice

How secure is your faith and trust in God? Jesus speaks of the tremendous trust he has in God his Father and the tremendous trust we ought to have in him because he is our good shepherd (John 10:11). What is the significance of Jesus calling himself the Good Shepherd? Shepherds were very common in the land of Jesus' time. A shepherd could have hundreds or thousands of sheep under his care. Sheep without a shepherd were vulnerable prey for predators, such as wolves and thieves. If a sheep strayed from the fold it could easily get lost, fall into a ravine, or become injured. Shepherds had to keep a constant watch over their folds by day and by night. That is why shepherds had to literally live with their sheep so they could lead them out to good pasture for grazing during the day and bring them to a safe place at night for rest and shelter. Shepherds got to know their sheep well and kept a careful count each evening. They also called their sheep by name so the sheep could recognize the shepherd's voice when he called them to follow him.

The Good Shepherd and Guardian of our souls

God used the image of a shepherd to describe his covenant relationship and care for his chosen people who were called by his name (Psalm 80:1 and 100:3). God called David, who shepherded his father's flock in his youth, to be the anointed king and shepherd for his people Israel (Ezekiel 37:24). Jesus, God's anointed Messiah and King, born from the tribe of David, called himself the Good Shepherd of the people whom his Father had entrusted to his care (John 10:29).

Peter the Apostle tells us that the Lord Jesus is the Good Shepherd and Guardian of our souls (1 Peter 2:25). He keeps a close and personal watch over every one of his sheep - his followers (disciples) who belong to him. He calls each of us personally by name to follow him. And he promises to be our guardian and protector from the snares of our enemy, Satan, the father of lies and a murderer from the beginning (John 8:44). The Lord leads us each day to good pastures - places where we can feed on his word and drink from the well-springs of living water which is his Holy Spirit (John 7:38-39, John 4:14). If we feed on his word and drink from the living water of the Holy Spirit, we will find the nourishment and strength we need to live each day for his glory and honor. Do you recognize the voice of your Shepherd and Guardian who calls to you each day?

"My sheep follow me"

Cyril of Alexandria (376-444 AD), an early church father and theologian, contrasts those who listen for the voice of the Good Shepherd, and those who close their ears to his call. The mark of Christ's sheep is their willingness to hear and obey, just as disobedience is the mark of those who are not his. We take the word hear to imply obedience to what has been said. People who hear God are known by him. No one is entirely unknown by God, but to be known in this way is to become part of his family. Therefore, when Christ says, 'I know mine,' he means I will receive them and give them a permanent mystical relationship with myself. It might be said that inasmuch as he has become man, he has made all human beings his relatives, since all are members of the same race. We are all united to Christ in a mystical relationship because of his incarnation. Yet those who do not preserve the likeness of his holiness are alienated from him... 'My sheep follow me,' says Christ. By a certain God-given grace, believers follow in the footsteps of Christ. No longer subject to the shadows of the law, they obey the commands of Christ and guided by his words rise through grace to his own dignity, for they are called 'children of God' (Matthew 5:9). When Christ ascends into heaven, they also follow him." (excerpt from the COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL OF JOHN 7.1)

The Lord opens our ears to hear his word

The Lord speaks to us in a variety of ways, but especially through his word in the Sacred Scriptures. He will open the Scriptures for us if we approach his word with reverence and faith (Luke 24:32). How can we grow in listening to the voice of our Lord and Shepherd? If we ask he will open our ears to hear him speak to our hearts and minds.

> "Morning by morning he wakens, he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught. The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I turned not backward" > (Isaiah 50:4-5).

And if we hunger for his word, he will give us understanding, wisdom, and guidance for our lives.

> "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path... I rejoice at your word like one who finds great treasure" > (Psalm 119:105, 162).

The Lord Jesus wants to draw each of us close to himself. He wants us to be united with him and the Father. That is why he teaches us to pray to our Father in heaven and to ask for his kingdom to reign in our lives (Matthew 6:9-10). The Lord Jesus knocks on the door of our hearts and homes (Revelation 2:20) and waits for our response. Will you answer his call and welcome his presence with you?

Lord Jesus, you have the words of eternal life. Open my ears to hear your voice and to follow your ways. Give me understanding that I may grow in the knowledge of your great love and wisdom for my life. dailyscripture.net

THE CALL TO SERVE

Dear St. Bernadette Parishioners:

My name is Ryan Everson. I am a seminarian from your parish for the Diocese of Phoenix, and I am currently completing my first year of formation at St. John Vianney Theological Seminary in Denver, CO. Fr. Kline kindly invited me to share a little about myself to you as I continue through seminary formation and humbly ask you for your prayers.

After growing up in Las Vegas, I moved to Arizona in 2015 to study classical French horn performance at the ASU Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts. When I first arrived at ASU, my faith was lukewarm at best, and my prayer life involved little more than going to Mass on Sunday. But at the ASU Newman Center, I encountered the remarkable beauty of Catholicism for the first time, and I realized that one way or another, this beauty of our faith was worth giving my life to.

Upon college graduation in 2019, after being involved with ASU Students for Life, and dabbling in student journalism and constitutional law during college, I was blessed to receive an internship at the Washington Examiner in our nation's capital, where I became the publication's main abortion policy writer. Shortly after that, I moved back home to Arizona when I received a job in Scottsdale at a Christian legal non-profit, Alliance Defending Freedom, as an editor.

While my years in full-time pro-life and religious freedom advocacy were exciting and life-changing, I gradually realized something was missing, and that it wasn't a perfect fit for me. The allure of being involved in national legal and political affairs faded; I wrestled with conflicts between succeeding in my career and living the life of prayer and charity I desired; and I realized that the Lord was calling me to primarily care not for the temporal affairs of this world, but for our Holy Mother Church, and for the eternal souls of His children, all of whom He loves so dearly.

While the COVID lockdowns challenged all of us in many ways, it provided me the extra time I needed to pray about these matters. It was through that sacred silence, away from the normal chaos of busy daily life, that the Lord gave me the clarity and courage to apply for the seminary, where I began formation in August 2021.

If you could please pray for me to grow in virtue and, if God wills it, to become a holy priest to serve the people of Arizona, I would be grateful beyond words. I am praying for you and our St. Bernadette community every day, and I hope to be able to meet more of you when I come home during my breaks from seminary formation.

Thank you so much, and may God bless you and your families with every grace and virtue this Easter season!

Gratefully,

Ryan Everson

CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

For centuries, people have turned to the Catholic Church to find the answers to the deepest, hardest, and even the most basic questions of everyday life.

- Do you have questions about the Catholic faith?
- Are you a Christian of a different faith background who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith?
- Is God calling you to consider joining and living the Catholic faith?
- Do you know someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic faith?
- Are you an adult Catholic in need of completing your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation & First Eucharist)?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, please join us to explore God's call in your life and to further develop a personal relationship with Christ. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the inquiry and formation process for adults interested in the Catholic faith.

Contact Shirley Smalley at 480-905-4434 or ssmalley@saintbernadette.com for more information about RCIA.

A Tribute to Moms!

Last year an ad company publicized an advertisement for a job and then conducted real interviews via webcam.

Can you imagine reading an ad for a job which required you to be at work 24/7, no breaks, no vacations? A job requiring constant movement, including bending, lifting, and fast reflexes, degrees and experience in medicine, psychology, project management, finance, and the culinary arts?

Pay? No. This is a volunteer position. Most of the applicants responded with some variation of, "Who in their right mind would take this position?" The interviewer responded "Billions of people are doing it right now." Who? Mothers!

We want to tell all mothers THANK YOU for supporting, encouraging, guiding, forgiving, comforting, and just plain loving your children even their least "lovable" moments. caremlitesistersocd.com

Happy Mother's Day

PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father,
from the beginning you have chosen to entrust
the human person to mothers in a special way.
We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers;
for their tenderness, care, and compassion,
for their intuition and encouragement,
for commitment and sacrifice.
Bless all mothers this day.
Keep, strengthen, and refresh them in your loving care.
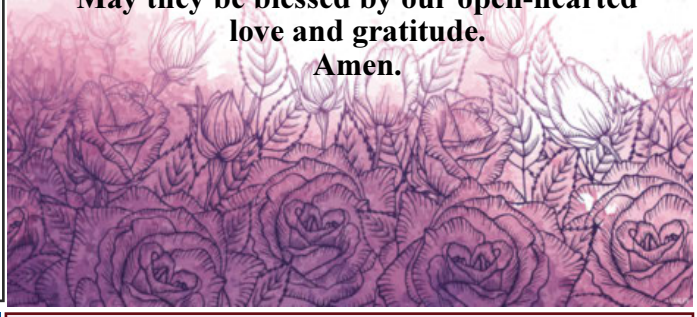
May they be blessed by our open-hearted
love and gratitude.
Amen.



In the Gospel , Jesus tell us "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

By helping the poor we can "bear much fruit" and we find that with Jesus we can do everything. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

Have you ever heard God calling you to serve the poor? Why not consider being a volunteer or member of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Our St. Bernadette conference has members ranging in age from 19 to 80 plus. There is room for all ages. If you are interested, call the hotline and leave a message and we will call you back.

Do you know someone in need of help—give them our hotline, 480-905-4439.

Thank you for helping us help others!

Culture of Life

ANDRE HOUSE

Assisting the homeless and working poor had been a regular event for St. Bernadette volunteers prior to COVID. We'd like to get back to volunteering at Andre House on a quarterly basis. We are looking for an individual to coordinate those efforts. Are you looking for a rewarding opportunity that doesn't take much time. This might be what you're looking for. Email Margaret at mhinski@cox.net for more details.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

The Culture of Life Committee provided a financial scholarship to a woman in need of medical care through the Aid to Women Center's support program. The woman accepted that financial assistance in order to keep her baby. She is ready to give birth to a baby boy in the next week or two. Please pray for her and her baby's physical health during the delivery and the days/months afterwards.

MATERNITY CLOTHES NEEDED

WANTED: Gently used maternity clothes for the pregnancy centers. Please contact Margaret H. at mhinski@cox.net if you have clothes you'd like to donate.
