PASTOR'S NOTES

Holy Week

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Welcome to Holy Week! Today, we begin the holiest week of the year for the Catholic Church. This week the Church commemorates Christ's death and burial. Ancient writers called this the Great or Holy Week of Our Lord's Passion. The custom of keeping the Holy Week goes all the way back to the time of the Apostles. When the early Christians spoke about Jesus to others, they started with the Passion of Our Lord. Scholars believe that the Passion of Our Lord spread before the other parts of the Gospel were even written down. The Passion of Our Lord is really the starting point for building our relationship with Jesus.

On Passion or Palm Sunday, the more solemn part of the penitential season begins. The images in our church are veiled in purple wrappings marking this week in a unique way. On Holy Thursday - when we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7:00pm – the Church commemorates the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the Priesthood. It is followed by a solemn procession to an altar Ramada for adoration until midnight. On Good Friday, the Church commemorates the death of Our Blessed Savior on Mount Calvary for the sins of humanity. On this day we will have the "Veneration of the Cross" at 3:00pm in which we venerate the crucifix as a sign of our love for Jesus followed by the Stations of the Cross at 7:00pm. On Holy Saturday, we celebrate the Triumph of Our Lord's resurrection from the dead and the Church welcomes catechumens into the Church. This will begin with the Easter Fire in the front parking lot at 8:00pm. Easter Sunday morning is the feast of Our Lord's Resurrection and the victory of life over death and the moment of our salvation. Masses will be at 6:00am, 8:00am, and 10:00am, with overflow seating and live-streaming of the Mass in the parish hall at 8:00 and 10:00.

Why do we focus on Jesus' suffering? Our Lord's Passion acknowledges the suffering of humanity and gives meaning to suffering. However great or small our suffering is, we are united to Christ's suffering. God draws especially close to those who are suffering. We all undergo trials, but the question is not whether you or I will suffer. The real question is what will you do with your trials? Will you join them to His - or give in to bitterness?

Let us remember the Passion of Our Lord… not because suffering has the last word. It does not! We recall Our Lord's Passion because our faith points to something beyond our suffering. Christians throughout history knew that everything did not end at the tomb. If that was the end, then it would be tragic and heartbreaking. As a people of faith, we see beyond Christ's final agony and so we can see beyond all agony.

As God's beloved children we know there is much more to life than death. Because of Christ's suffering and death, our suffering now has great value. Join us this Holy Week as we relive the great events of our faith in Christ's suffering, death and resurrection.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.
Pastor

The Triduum Is Special

The Easter Triduum, marking the days of Jesus' passion and resurrection, is the summit of the Church's liturgical year. Beginning on Holy Thursday with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, it is continued through Good Friday with the celebration of the passion of the Lord, and reaches its high point on Holy Saturday in the Easter vigil, and concludes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday. It is actually one liturgy that spans three days.

Prepared by the days of Lent, Christians celebrate on these holiest of days the saving work God has accomplished in Christ. From the events remembered on these days, so sorrowful and so joyful, the church learns the deepest lessons. In rites and words the mysteries of Jesus' final hours are present with us, his passion, his cruel suffering, his rising from the dead. And we discover the answer to age old questions: Does God love us? Is God merciful? Does God care for us? We have only to look and learn from Jesus Christ.

These are the days for fixing our eyes on the holy mystery of his cross and filling our ears with the words of his gospel. Nowhere else does God's love appear so vividly. In the love shown by Christ for a sinful world, we find the beginning of our Church, the source of our sacraments, the key to understanding the human story, and our hope for eternal life.

The Season of Lent ends before evening prayer on Thursday of Holy Week. Then the Church remembers the death and resurrection of Jesus during the Easter Triduum.

Holy Thursday

On Holy Thursday, we remember the Last Supper and how Jesus gave himself in the Eucharist. We recall that Jesus chose his apostles to serve and lead the Church. Remembering that Jesus washed their feet at the Last Supper, the priest washes the feet of members of the congregation. Holy Thursday is a special day for all priests, since it is a day to mark the beginning of the ordained priesthood.

The evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday is a beautiful and joyful celebration. During the singing of the Gloria, the church bells are rung and then remain silent until the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night. Because Holy Thursday is a feast day of the Blessed Sacrament, there is a procession of the Eucharist after the Mass to an altar of repose set up for this special occasion. Then the main altar is stripped bare and the main tabernacle is left empty.

Good Friday

On Good Friday, we remember the death of Our Lord, Jesus. According to an ancient custom, Mass is not celebrated on this day or before the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. The celebration of the Lord's passion and death takes place in the afternoon. There are three parts to the liturgy of the day: the Liturgy of the Word; the Veneration of the Cross; and Holy Communion with Hosts that were consecrated on Holy Thursday.

Easter Vigil

During the day of Holy Saturday, the Church meditates on the suffering and death of Jesus. Then that night, the Church gathers to celebrate the Easter Vigil. The celebration of the Easter Vigil begins after nightfall and ends before the dawn of Sunday. It includes the blessing of the fire, the blessing & lighting of the Paschal candle, readings from creation to the Resurrection, and the celebration of the baptism of the elect.

Blessed Is the King Who Comes in the Name of the Lord

Does the King of glory find a welcome entry in your home and heart? Jesus went to Jerusalem knowing full well what awaited him - betrayal, rejection, and crucifixion. The people of Jerusalem, however, were ready to hail him as their Messianic King! Little did they know what it would cost this king to usher in his kingdom. Jesus' entry into Jerusalem astride a colt was a direct fulfillment of the Messianic prophecy of Zechariah (9:9):

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion. Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem. Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, and riding on an donkey and upon a colt the foal of a donkey

Those who believe, hope, and love, receive Christ's kingdom of peace and eternal life

The colt was a sign of peace. Jesus enters Jerusalem in meekness and humility, as the Messianic King who offers victory and peace to his people. That victory and peace would be secured in the cross and resurrection which would soon take place at the time of Passover.

Augustine, the great 5th century church father, comments on the significance of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem:

> "The master of humility is Christ who humbled himself and became obedient even to death, even the death of the cross. Thus he does not lose his divinity when he teaches us humility... What great thing was it to the king of the ages to become the king of humanity? For Christ was not the king of Israel so that he might exact a tax or equip an army with weaponry and visibly vanquish an enemy. He was the king of Israel in that he rules minds, in that he gives counsel for eternity, in that he leads into the kingdom of heaven for those who believe, hope, and love. It is a condescension, not an advancement for one who is the Son of God, equal to the Father, the Word through whom all things were made, to become king of Israel. It is an indication of pity, not an increase in power." (Tractates on John 51.3-4)

Psalm 24 is another prophetic passage which echoes this triumphal procession of the King of glory:

Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

Jesus Christ came to bring us the kingdom of God. He is the true King who offers peace, joy, and everlasting life for those who accept his kingship. Does the King of glory find a welcome entry in your heart and home? Do your walls echo with the praise of his glory?

Lord Jesus, be the King and Ruler of my heart, mind, life, and home. May my life reflect your meekness and humility that you may be honored as the King of glory! dailyscripture.com

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life.

Please support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the poor as they carry their cross of suffering and pain. Through service to the poor, you join Jesus in offering healing and life-giving assistance to others.

Our conference is looking for new members and volunteers. Is God calling you to live the Gospel by word and action? If so, contact out hotline at 480-905-4439 and leave a message. We will return your call.

SAINT BERNADETTE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Pray for our Elect:

Race Carter, Colten Heart, Adyn Hicks, Kayla Hurd, and Emily McDonald

The time for the initiation of the Elect, our chosen catechumens, is drawing near. Our five Elect are all young adults who heard God calling them to conversion through the Catholic faith. Over the course of many months, they have listened and discussed God's Word, been formed in the basic tenets of our faith, prayed, reflected and discerned God's call in their lives. They have demonstrated a love of God, a commitment and involvement in our faith and our community, and have expressed a desire to join the Church publically and privately.

Their official faith journey into the Catholic faith, began in the Fall with the Rite of Welcoming and Acceptance where they committed to the process as serious learners and we, as a community, pledged to journey with them. On the first Sunday of Lent, we sent five of our catechumens, the unbaptized, to the Bishop to become the Elect also known as the "chosen ones". On the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent, they went through three scrutinies during the 10:00 AM mass where we prayed that all that is sinful in them will be lessened and all that is holy will be strengthened.

During Lent, these Elect and other participants in the initiation process have experienced what is known as the period of Purification and Enlightenment. During these weeks, the group has reflected on the Gospels and spent time in reflection, journaling and prayer. The Elect were also presented with a copy of the Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer during special prayer services and the all attended a Lenten retreat focused on the Passion of our Lord and the sacraments they will receive at the Easter Vigil. They were reminded and challenged to know, believe and defend the basic tenets of our faith.

The journey into the Catholic faith is beautiful and each of the Elect have demonstrated a love of God and a commitment to His holy Church. Join us in praying an supporting them as they proceed to the baptismal font on Holy Saturday.

Search and Rescue Mission

A New Evangelization Ministry at St. Bernadette

Sadly, in our current culture, there are some Catholics who have fallen away from the Faith. There are also many people in our country who are growing up and living without any faith at all, and they do not even know Jesus Christ.

The Catholic Church's New Evangelization, started by St. John Paul II, is an outreach specifically for these two groups of people. In order to invite fallen away Catholics to come home and to introduce Jesus to those who may not know Him, we are starting a new ministry called "Search and Rescue Mission". This ministry involves going door to door to homes within our parish boundaries to meet our neighbors and personally invite them to get to know the Catholic Community here at St. Bernadette. In doing so we are fulfilling Jesus's mandate to "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations."

Please prayerfully consider joining us in this important ministry. We send out our evangelists in teams of at least two individuals. You don't have to be a theologian to be a good evangelist.
Loving your faith, wanting to share it and having some basic interpersonal skills are the only true requirements. We will provide instruction, training, printed materials and mentoring for you.

If you are interested in more information about this new outreach, please call Tom Ziemann at 970-618-8286 no later than April 17th.
