The Blessing of Mothers

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“The most important person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral—a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby’s body... The angels have not been blessed with such a grace. They cannot share in God’s creative miracle to bring new saints to Heaven. Only a human mother can. Mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other creature; God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation... What on God’s good earth is more glorious than this; to be a mother?” - József Cardinal Mindszenty

We are blessed with so many faithful and loving parishioners. The many young people and families breathe new life into our already vibrant community. I am always amazed at the incredible sacrifices I see parents make at every Mass. As I see moms and dads bring their little ones to Mass and catechism classes, I am so grateful for their dedication and desire to share God's love with their children. I am reminded of the love my own mother and father have shown me throughout my life and I give thanks to God for blessing me with wonderful parents. Parents have the awesome privilege and blessing to form the future of the world IN GOD'S IMAGE! That is something we should all give thanks for as well as pray for families who are struggling and children who suffer without loving and caring parents.

Today, we give thanks to God for mothers, for mom, for the amazing gift of motherhood. I am continually amazed and humbled by the love and care that so many moms from our parish give to their children. Motherhood is a profound calling that is an essential part of the dignity of women.

During the pontificate of Pope John Paul II, the Holy Father wrote a beautiful encyclical called, On the Dignity and Vocation of Women. The Encyclical has been studied by millions of Catholic men and woman since its release. I found the Holy Father’s words to be tender and intimate, most especially because his own mother died when he was a child.

Pope John Paul II wrote: “Motherhood involves a special communion with the mystery of life, as it develops in the woman's womb. The mother is filled with wonder at this mystery of life, and "understands" with unique intuition what is happening inside her. In the light of the "beginning," the mother accepts and loves as a person the child she is carrying in her womb.”

Pope John Paul also shared that the father must look to his wife to begin to understand his role in the family. That is, “the father with all his sharing in parenthood--always remains "outside" the process of pregnancy and the baby's birth; in many ways he has to learn his own "fatherhood" from the mother.”

My prayer is that the mothers among us can give thanks for their vocations on Mother’s Day. And further, I hope as their children, we respect that calling and uphold the institution of motherhood as the divine calling that it is! Let us pray:

Mother Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession left unaided by grace. Dear Mother, thank you for your “Yes” to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God’s word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. Mother Mary, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with You in giving their own “Fiat.” May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love- the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son. On this Mother’s Day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you...

May God bless Mothers today!

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V. F.

The Lord Jesus Was Taken up into Heaven

Why did Jesus leave his disciples forty days after his resurrection? Forty is a significant number in the scriptures. Moses went to the mountain to seek the face of God for forty days in prayer and fasting. The people of Israel were in the wilderness for forty years in preparation for their entry into the promised land. Elijah fasted for forty days as he journeyed in the wilderness to the mountain of God. For forty days after his resurrection Jesus appeared numerous times to his disciples to assure them that he had risen indeed and to prepare them for the task of carrying on the work which he began during his earthy ministry.

The Risen Lord Jesus is with us always to the end of time

Jesus' departure and ascension was both an end and a beginning for his disciples. While it was the end of Jesus' physical presence with his beloved disciples, it marked the beginning of Jesus' presence with them in a new way. Jesus promised that he would be with them always to the end of time (Matthew 28:20). Now as the glorified and risen Lord and Savior, ascended to the right hand of the Father in heaven, Jesus promised to send them the Holy Spirit who would anoint them with power on the Feast of Pentecost, just as Jesus was anointed for his ministry at the River Jordan. When the Lord Jesus departed physically from the apostles, they were not left in sorrow or grief. Instead, they were filled with joy and with great anticipation for the coming of the Holy Spirit.

The Risen Lord empowers us to carry on his work

Jesus' last words to his apostles point to his saving mission and to their mission to be witnesses of his saving death and his glorious resurrection and to proclaim the good news of salvation to all the world. Their task is to proclaim the Gospel - the good news of salvation - not only to the people of Israel, but to all the nations as well. God's love and gift of salvation is not reserved for a few or for one nation alone, but it is for the whole world - for all who will accept it. The Gospel is the power of God, the power to release people from their burden of guilt, sin, and oppression, and the power to heal, restore, and make us whole. Do you believe in the power of the Gospel?

We are ambassadors for Jesus Christ

This is the great commission which the risen Christ gives to the whole church. All believers have been given a share in this task - to be heralds of the good news and ambassadors for Jesus Christ, the only savior of the world. We have not been left alone in this task, for the risen Lord works in and through us by the power of his Holy Spirit. Today we witness a new Pentecost as the Lord pours out his Holy Spirit upon his people to renew and strengthen the body of Christ and to equip it for effective ministry and mission world-wide. Do you witness to others the joy of the Gospel and the hope of the resurrection?

Lord Jesus, through the gift of your Holy Spirit, you fill us with an indomitable spirit of praise and joy which no earthly trial can subdue. Fill me with your resurrection joy and help me to live a life of praise and thanksgiving for your glory. May I witness to those around me the joy of the Gospel and the reality of your great victory over sin and death. dailyscripture.net

INFORMATION

Candidates in the RCIA process are those individuals that have been baptized in another standard Christian faith. Like the unbaptized, they go through interviews and formation classes before they are initiated.

Since the Catholic Church recognizes their baptism, these individuals become Catholic by making a Profession of Faith and participating in the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time before they receive the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Eucharist.

During the 10:00 AM mass on Pentecost, seven of our RCIA candidates will be initiated into the Church. Please join us in praying for them.

The Catholic Church has a rich history of initiating adults into our faith. The process includes an exploratory phase, formal educational sessions, discernment, rich rites and rituals and reception into the Church through the sacraments of initiation.

New participants are accepted into the program year round. If you are not Catholic and would like to learn more about our faith, please consider joining us to find out about the process and our faith.

The graphic features a 3D rendered scene of a town with stone buildings, trees, and a clear sky. The word 'Nazareth' is written in large, blue, textured letters across the center. Below it, the dates 'JUNE 24th-28th' are written in pink and yellow. A white text box is overlaid on the bottom half of the image.
