PASTOR'S NOTES

Giving > Receiving

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Mother Teresa knew that it is in giving that we receive, dying that we are born to eternal life. She was called to live the words of St. Paul: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." I just wanted to thank you, the extraordinarily generous stewards of our community who remained stalwart supporters of our beloved parish, even when your jobs and livelihoods could have been in pandemic jeopardy. I was so inspired by you. May God bless you for your generosity!

This is also a good time to relay how your contributions are stewarded. It begins each spring when our parish staff plans our budget for the next fiscal year. Last year, we created a leaner budget to correspond with an uncertain world climate. The careful management of your tithing by our parish staff, combined with your generosity led to solid footing for our parish as we closed the fiscal year this summer. As your pastor, I breathed a sigh of relief and prayed prayers of thanksgiving!

This year's budgeting process was convened in May. For the past several years, our strategy has been to have department heads present their budgets to the staff, along with a narrative that helps all of us build mission-focused budgets in our ministries. This allows us to scrutinize our spending in light of our overall mission.

In many ways, it is like putting together a home budget, on a much larger scale of course. At home, you budget for utilities, food, clothing and maybe a home improvement project. At the parish we do exactly the same. As we budget for the parish, we trust and pray that you have included us in your fiscal planning. In the end, this is what stewardship is about, that you see the work of your family and our parish family as one seamless garment that is in need of your support.

I was proud of our staff as they built this year's budget. It is solid. We have discerned that our budget needs to be slightly increased by approximately 5% over last year's budget. This is amazing since it takes into account the reduced parish activities last year. We hope and pray that your support will continue so that we can continue to build beautiful things for God.

While we are most grateful for your stewardship in any form, to help us maintain a more consistent cash flow, we encourage the use of online giving. I can speak about this myself. For many years, as an employee of the parish, I have been able to have my tithe taken right out of my paycheck. I really like it that way because, it is a protected priority in my financial management. I like the fact that God receives his share first and then I consider my spending on needed personal priorities.

Parishioners currently tithing online tell us that it is a great help to them, too. It allows them to clearly budget the amount that they want to give back to God and helps them feel assured that their parish is receiving their tithe even when they are out-of-town or when they forget to consistently carry their envelope to mass and so on.

Please prayerfully consider setting up a recurring tithe through our online giving program! You can do so through our website at <https://www.saintbernadette.com/give>.

I cannot believe that we have arrived in August. In no time, kids will be returning to school. I hope you are able to carve out some family fun in the waning days of summer!

God Bless,

Notes on the St. Bernadette Sanctuary Renovation

by Fr. Don Kline, V.F.

PART 16: THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Each Friday during Lent, many in our parish, and around the world, gather to trace the footsteps of Jesus on his Via Dolorosa (Sorrowful Way), the Way of the Cross, or Via Crucis. I have been deeply moved and inspired at St. Bernadette over the years by all those who have prayed the Stations of the Cross.

The Stations of the Cross are just that – “stations” on a journey. Praying the Stations of the Cross involves movement – walking with Jesus – from one place to another, at least by the leaders if the space does not accommodate the whole group’s moving. Anyone who’s prayed a Way of the Cross in Jerusalem has experienced this first hand; the journey from place to place is a powerful microcosm of the Christian pilgrim’s life, journeying with Jesus.

But what are the Stations of the Cross, exactly? Where do they come from? The Way of the Cross originated in Jerusalem early in the Christian era and grew in popularity during the middle ages, when European crusaders would retrace the footsteps of Jesus from His sentencing by Pilate at the Praetorium to the hill of Calvary, where Our Lord was crucified.

Ultimately, they grew from the early tradition that the Blessed Virgin Mary followed Jesus on his Via Dolorosa and then retraced the steps each day after His ascension into heaven. This is why, by the way, the hymn most commonly associated with the Stations is the Stabat Mater (At the Cross Her Station Keeping), reflecting on Mary’s sorrow as She walks with Her Son as He carries His cross.

Eventually the Franciscan order became the official keepers of the Via Crucis, and they not only cared for the Way in Jerusalem, but also promoted the spread of the devotion throughout Europe by placing a series of wooden crosses in parish churches. Those Christians who could not make a full pilgrimage to Jerusalem could at least trace the footsteps of Jesus in their own parish church through the stations. The number of stations varied until it was fixed at fourteen by Pope Clement XII in 1731.

As far as I know, there is no official Church legislation dictating that Stations of the Cross must be included in every church, but have you ever seen a Catholic church without them? An interesting note is that, whatever the artwork of the stations, each one must include a cross. And it is that cross, not the artwork surrounding it, that comprises the actual “station.”

So what about our stations at St. Bernadette? First of all, why update our current ones? The answer to that is similar to the answer to why we’re getting new stained glass windows. The current stations are not bad, (actually they are quite beautiful) but they are a bit small for the large space on the wall. So the artists and sculptors went to work to find a way to keep the current stations while enabling them to fit the space in a more proportional way.

Our updated stations, are the same colorful stations but they are now ensconced in a new beautiful frame that will closely resemble the frame currently around both Our Lady and St. Joseph - marble columns and all!

Images depicted in the Stations of the Cross provide powerful reminders of the depth of Our Lord’s love for us. There is no limit to the reach of God’s love. No one is beyond the grasp of God’s mercy. Images found along the Via Dolorosa are there to remind us of Christ’s willingness to suffer for our salvation. Meditating on the depth of God’s love and mercy provides us with many blessings and graces.

One blessing people often find in this devotion includes the strength God provides to carry our own cross. As we pray the Stations of the Cross and reflect on the those present at the foot of the cross you may be encouraged to know that you are not alone in your suffering. Perhaps you think of Mother Mary and the disciple John faithfully present before Our Lord on the Cross. Maybe the women Our Lord comforts along the way come to mind for you. One can also include the centurion Longinus often depicted at the foot of the cross. He is traditionally known as the Roman centurion who pierces Jesus' side with a lance and later becomes Christian by virtue of his experience with Our Lord. There are other recurring characters along the Way and more levels of symbolism to explore that can provide great depth and richness to those who pray the Stations of the Cross.

As with all quality sacred art, there is always more to discover each time we contemplate it - certainly a fertile field of reflection and prayer each time we walk the Stations.

It is my hope as you reflect on these words, you will come to see that sacred art is very different. While it is often inspiring, powerful and often beautiful - sacred art can also be disturbing, challenging, and painful. However Our Lord moves your heart, if you enter into it, sacred art can change you and move you closer to God. Quality sacred art reaches into a person's core and can bring their heart and mind truths that would never sink in if presented prosaically. So may it be when we pray these Stations of Our Lord's Cross. By contemplating them, may we be drawn closer into relationship with Jesus Christ; may we be changed from the inside out as we make our journey with Our Lord!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” - Jn 6:51

God offers his people abundant life, but we can miss it. What is the bread of life which Jesus offers? It is first of all the life of God himself - life which sustains us not only now in this age but also in the age to come. The Rabbis said that the generation in the wilderness have no part in the life to come. In the Book of Numbers it is recorded that the people who refused to brave the dangers of the promised land were condemned to wander in the wilderness until they died. The Rabbis believed that the father who missed the promised land also missed the life to come. God sustained the Israelites in the wilderness with manna from heaven. This bread foreshadowed the true heavenly bread which Jesus would offer his followers.

Jesus is the "bread of life"

Jesus makes a claim only God can make: He is the true bread of heaven that can satisfy the deepest hunger we experience. The manna from heaven prefigured the superabundance of the unique bread of the Eucharist or Lord's Supper which Jesus gave to his disciples on the eve of his sacrifice. The manna in the wilderness sustained the Israelites on their journey to the Promised Land. It could not produce eternal life for the Israelites. The bread which Jesus offers his disciples sustains us not only on our journey to the heavenly paradise, it gives us the abundant supernatural life of God which sustains us for all eternity.

The food that makes us live forever

When we receive from the Lord's table, we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ, who makes us sharers in his body and blood and partakers of his divine life. Ignatius of Antioch (35-107 A.D.), an early church father and martyr, calls it the "one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death, and the food that makes us live for ever in Jesus Christ" (Ad Eph. 20,2). This supernatural food is healing for both body and soul and strength for our journey heavenward.

Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?

Jesus offers us the abundant supernatural life of heaven itself - but we can miss it or even refuse it. To refuse Jesus is to refuse eternal life, unending life with the Heavenly Father. To accept Jesus as the bread of heaven is not only life and spiritual nourishment for this world but glory in the world to come. When you approach the Table of the Lord, what do you expect to receive? Healing, pardon, comfort, and rest for your soul? The Lord has much more for us, more than we can ask or imagine. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist or Lord's Supper is an intimate union with Christ. As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens us in charity and enables us to break with disordered attachments to creatures and to be more firmly rooted in the love of Christ. Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?

Lord Jesus, you are the living bread which sustains me in this life. May I always hunger for the bread which comes from heaven and find in it the nourishment and strength I need to love and serve you wholeheartedly.

May I always live in the joy, peace, and unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, both now and in the age to come.

A catechetical series that implements the "new order, methods and expressions" of the New Evangelization.

Beginning in October, St. Bernadette's parish will introduce the Faith & Life series for all after school Religious Education students in grades First through Fifth. This engaging catechetical series reveals the beauty of the Catholic faith through the story of salvation history. The program uses Scripture, beautiful sacred art work and stories of the saints to capture the attention of children and to lead them closer to Christ. Student registration will open online at the end of August. Watch the bulletin for the latest details.

We are currently looking for catechists and classroom aides. Training, support and materials will be provided. Please contact the Parish Office if you would like to volunteer to work with our after school elementary students.

Required Trainings

HAVE YOU COMPLETED YOUR ANNUAL SET RENEWAL?

You must complete your renewal process to volunteer at St. Bernadette's by Monday, August 16th.

The Diocese of Phoenix requires all ministers and volunteers to complete a Safe Environment process. Each year all previously approved clergy, staff, ministers, and volunteers are required to take a SET renewal class either online or in person. The Safe Environment year runs July 1st through June 30th.

Renewals must be completed annually and background checks every five years. This year's renewal video is "A Safe Side of the Line". The video takes about 21 minutes to watch and the reading/paperwork/agreement sections will require another 5 to 10 minutes, so you should be prepared to spend about 30 minutes to complete the process.

Visit <http://phoenix.cmgconnect.org> and access your file, update any information and click on the online renewal box. (See the image above). Be sure you complete all of the reading and approval boxes as well as viewing the video.

If you are a new volunteer/minister or if you are thinking about volunteering in the near future, please visit <https://phoenix.cmgconnect.org>. Once on the web site, you will fill out an online application, submit your Social Security number and complete an online foundation class. Your background check will be started once you complete the class.

For questions contact the volunteer office at 480-905-4434
