The Sacrament of Marriage

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Nearly 20 couples have decided to celebrate their marriage here at St. Bernadette in the coming months! This is a great blessing for our Church and our world! I am very excited for these couples. It really is an honor to get to know them, as they prepare for this sacrament. Hopefully you know that the Church takes marriage preparation very seriously. Statistics show that going through a process like it increases marital success.

Marriage preparation at St. Bernadette includes several meetings with the marriage preparation coordinator. The meetings include taking the FOCCUS. This is a compatibility tool that helps to shed some light on issues that can be stumbling/building blocks in marriage. The couple is able to attend the complete Natural Family Planning course to learn the Church's beautiful teaching on marital intimacy and a couple's ability to cooperate with God's plan for the creation of new life. Lastly, they will be able to participate in a day long Diocesan God's Plan for a Joy-Filled Marriage course.

During my years of preparing couples for marriage, I have come across some interesting conversations. I recall one time while speaking with the couple about their upcoming vows. We were addressing the simple question, "I am open to children in my marriage." He said yes. And she said no. I remember that he looked at her and said, "Wait, I thought you just didn't want children now." My heart sank. A tough conversation followed, one that they obviously thought they had right but did not. Yikes.

When the Catholic Church teaches that marriage between two baptized persons is a sacrament, the Church is saying that the couple's relationship expresses in a unique way the unbreakable bond of love between Christ and his people. Like the other sacraments of the Church, marriage is a sign or symbol which reveals the Lord Jesus and through which His divine life and love are communicated.

If you remember your religious education class, you might remember that all seven sacraments were instituted by Christ and were entrusted to the Church to be celebrated in faith within and for the community of believers. The rituals and prayers by which a sacrament is celebrated serve to express visibly what God is doing invisibly.

In a sacramental marriage, God's love becomes present to the spouses in their total union and also flows through them to their family and community. That is hard work! By their permanent, faithful, and exclusive giving to each other, symbolized in sexual intercourse, the couple reveals something of God's unconditional love for His people making what we call the marital act, sacred. It is not at all what we see in the porn culture around us!

The sacrament of Christian marriage involves a couple's entire life as they journey together through the ups and downs of marriage and become more able to give to and receive from each other. Their life becomes sacramental to the extent that the couple cooperates with God's action in their life and sees themselves as living "in Christ" and Christ living and acting in their relationship, attitudes, and actions.

But couples aren't on their own. Catholic teaching holds that sacraments bring grace to those who receive them with the proper disposition. Grace is a way of describing how God shares the divine life with us and gives us the help we need to live as followers of Christ. In marriage, the grace of this sacrament brings the spouses the particular help they need to be faithful to each other and to be good parents. It also helps the couple to serve others beyond their immediate family and to show the community that a loving and lasting marriage is both desirable and possible!

If you are discerning sacramental marriage, let us help you. Call the office and one of the priests or deacons will help you! Also, if you were not sacramentally married (that is, you were married civilly), allow us to help you receive the sacrament of marriage. Certainly today, married couples need all the help they can get, most especially God's grace!

God Bless,

God Bless,

As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. — Lk 24:51

As is the custom of the diocese of Phoenix, The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be celebrated on Sunday, May 29 instead of Thursday, May 26

GOSPEL REFLECTION

How does God reveal his glory to us? During his last supper with his disciples on the eve of his sacrifice on the cross, Jesus speaks of his glory and the glory of his Father. What is this glory? It is the cross which Jesus speaks of here. The cross of Jesus reveals the tremendous love and mercy of God the Father and his beloved Son for the human race. John the Evangelist writes, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

The true nature of love

There is no greater glory and honor that one can offer than the willing sacrifice of one's life for the sake of another. This is the true nature of love - the total self-giving and free offering of one's life for the good of another. A mother who loves her child will do everything in her power to nurture, protect, and save the life of the child. A soldier devoted to his country's welfare, will endure any hardship and suffering and willingly sacrifice his own life to defend his people. God the Father showed the unfathomable depth of his love and mercy by willingly offering his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, as the atoning sacrifice for the sin of the world. To ransom a slave God gave his only Son. That slave is you and me and the whole human race which is bound in sin and death and separation from God.

The cancer of sin is healed by Christ's merciful love. Paul the Apostle tells us, "For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 6:23). The Lord Jesus died for our sins to bring us abundant new life in his Spirit and to restore our nature in the true image and likeness of God. The cancer of sin shows us the ugliness of greed, hatred, and envy which destroy the very core of our being and rob us of life and love. That is why evil infects the world which God created out of his boundless love and goodness. God did not create evil and suffering, but through suffering he conquers evil with goodness, truth, and mercy and righteousness.

That is why Jesus gave his disciples a new commandment and way of love - not a commandment that replaces the Old Covenant commandment to love one's neighbor as oneself. This new commandment transforms the old commandment with the love and mercy which the Lord Jesus poured out for us on the Cross of Calvary. There death was defeated, and sin was covered with merciful love and forgiveness, and Satan's power was crushed through Godly meekness and obedience. Jesus proved that love is stronger than death. That is how we overcome the world and conquer our enemies - Satan, who is the father of lies and a murderer from the beginning, the world which stands in opposition to God, and our own sinful pride and fear of death.

The love of Christ conquers all

The Father has glorified his Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, by raising him from the dead. And the Lord shares his glory with us and with all who believe in him as their Lord and Savior. Augustine of Hippo wrote, God loves each one of us as if there were only one of us to love. God's love is direct, personal, and wholly oriented to our good welfare and happiness. What can hold us back from loving the One who suffered and died for us and who offers us abundant joy and happiness with him forever? Nothing can separate us from that love except our own stubborn pride, envy, and self-deception. Satan rebelled out of pride and envy - he wanted to be God's rival. Adam disobeyed because he listened to Satan's lie and deceptive promise to glory apart from God. We sin because we love ourselves more than we love God and our neighbor. Only the cross can break the curse of sin and bring full restoration of body, mind, and soul.

We are called to love as Christ loves us

We were made for glory - the glory which comes from God and which lasts forever. That glory can only be obtained in the cross of Jesus Christ. And the price for that glory is the total offering of our lives for the One who loved us first and who died on the cross to save us from everlasting death and destruction. God offers us the free gift of faith which enables us to believe in his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who frees us from slavery to sin so we can live as sons and daughters of God. The distinctive mark of the followers of Jesus is love - a love not bound by fear, greed, or selfishness - but a love full of compassion, mercy, kindness, and goodness.

God's love has been poured into our hearts

How can we love one another as Christ has loved us? Paul the Apostle tells us that "God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). Jesus poured out his Holy Spirit on his disciples at Pentecost and he pours out his Spirit today on all who believe in him. If we yield our hearts to Jesus and submit to his will for us, then the Holy Spirit will purify all that is unloving, unkind, and unforgiving in us. The Lord wants to transform our minds so we can understand his word of truth and life which has power to set us free from ignorance, unbelief, deception, and prejudice.

This is the power that overcomes the world - the triumphant cross of Christ which breaks the destructive forces of sin, hatred, and division. And we share in the power of Christ's victory by embracing the cross which the Lord Jesus sets before each one of us. What is the cross that I must take up daily in order to follow the Lord Jesus? When my will crosses with God's will, then his will must be done. The cross of Christ sets us free to live no longer for ourselves but for Christ and his kingdom of peace, joy, and righteousness (moral goodness). Our calling and privilege is to serve as Christ has served and to love and he has loved. That is the way we share in the glory of our heavenly Father who gave us his beloved Son who laid down his life for each one of us.

The distinctive mark of every disciple and follower of Jesus Christ is love - a love that is ready to forgive and forget past injuries, to heal and restore rather than inflict revenge and injury. The cross of Jesus is the only way to pardon, peace, forgiveness, and reconciliation. Every other way will fail or fall short of the glory and victory which Jesus Christ has won for us through his death and resurrection. If we embrace his love and truth and allow his Holy Spirit to purify and transform our hearts and minds, then we will find the inner freedom, joy, and strength we need to love without measure, to forgive without limit, and to serve without reward - save that of knowing we are serving the One who wants to be united with us in an unbreakable bond of peace and joy forever.

Lord Jesus, your love knows no bounds and surpasses everything I could desire and long for. Fill me with the fire of your love and with the joy of your Holy Spirit that I may freely serve my neighbor with loving-kindness, tenderhearted mercy, and generous care for their well-being. dailyscripture.net

Culture of Life

ANDRE HOUSE

Assisting the homeless and working poor had been a regular event for St. Bernadette volunteers prior to COVID. We'd like to get back to volunteering at Andre House on a quarterly basis. We are looking for an individual to coordinate those efforts. Are you looking for a rewarding opportunity that doesn't take much time. This might be what you're looking for. Email Margaret at mhinski@cox.net for more details.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

The Culture of Life Committee provided a financial scholarship to a woman in need of medical care through the Aid to Women Center's support program. The woman accepted that financial assistance in order to keep her baby. She is ready to give birth to a baby boy in the next week or two. Please pray for her and her baby's physical health during the delivery and the days/months afterwards.

MATERNITY CLOTHES NEEDED

WANTED: Gently used maternity clothes for the pregnancy centers. Please contact Margaret H. at mhinski@cox.net if you have clothes you'd like to donate.

Spiritual Warfare Rosary and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Join us on Mondays at 6:00 PM in the Church to pray all of the mysteries of the rosary, followed by adoration.

CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

For centuries, people have turned to the Catholic Church to find the answers to the deepest, hardest, and even the most basic questions of everyday life.

- ✘ Do you have questions about the Catholic faith?
- ✘ Are you a Christian of a different faith background who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith?
- ✘ Is God calling you to consider joining and living the Catholic faith?
- ✘ Do you know someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic faith?
- ✘ Are you an adult Catholic in need of completing your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation & First Eucharist)?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, please join us to explore God’s call in your life and to further develop a personal relationship with Christ. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the inquiry and formation process for adults interested in the Catholic faith.

Contact Shirley Smalley at 480-905-4434 or ssmalley@saintbernadette.com for more information about RCIA.

Please pray for those who will make their First Communion and Confirmation on May 22nd at St. Bernadette

Sacrament Preparations

The program year is nearing a close, and the children of the parish have devoted their time this year to making connections with their peers, our rich Catholic Faith and with our Lord.
