PASTOR'S NOTES

The Apparitions
(part V of VI)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

There were no less than 18 Apparitions where Our Blessed Mother appeared to St. Bernadette at the grotto in Lourdes, France. They began on February 11, 1858.

First apparition: the first contact.

Bernadette came with two other girls to collect firewood. She felt a gust of wind, although the trees did not move. All of a sudden, there was a light in the grotto. The light had the shape of a young girl. Bernadette rubbed her eyes. She was afraid. She took out her rosary. She wanted to make the sign of the cross. She was unable to do so. The Apparition made the sign of the cross. Bernadette copied her. She said the rosary. No word was exchanged.

February 14th - Second apparition: the smile.

Bernadette's parents did not want her to return to the grotto. But they allowed themselves to be convinced. Was the Apparition from God or from the devil? To be clear about it Bernadette took holy water from the parish. When the lady appeared, Bernadette sprinkled her with it. The lady smiled, but she still did not speak.

February 18th - Third apparition: the promises.

The apparition did not come from the devil. But who was she? What was her name? When Bernadette asked her to write it, the lady replied: "it is not necessary." The lady proposed a daily meeting to Bernadette: "Would you do me the favor of coming here for two weeks?" Bernadette was completely astonished. The Lady had spoken to her in a very respectful way. Bernadette promises. The lady responded with another promise: "I promise you happiness, not in this world but in the other."

February 19th to February 23rd
Fourth to seventh apparitions: prayer.

Bernadette was faithful to her promise. She came every day. The 22nd of February, the lady did not appear: it was a test for Bernadette. The town authorities wanted to stop her from going to the grotto. She was accused of causing public disorder. They threatened her with prison. The apparitions were, above all, a time of prayer. The face of Bernadette radiated such beauty that the crowd increases daily in order to see her. The lady and Bernadette talk, but Bernadette repeated nothing: it was the time of personal secrets.

To be continued…

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Do you pray with joy and confidence? The Jews were noted for their devotion to prayer. Formal prayer was prescribed for three set times a day. And the rabbis had a prayer for every occasion. It was also a custom for rabbis to teach their disciples a simple prayer they might use on a regular basis. Jesus' disciples ask him for such a prayer. When Jesus taught his disciples to pray, he gave them the disciple's prayer, what we call the Our Father or Lord's Prayer.

God treats us as his own sons and daughters

What does Jesus' prayer tell us about God and about ourselves? First, it tells us that God is both Father in being the Creator and Author of all that he has made, the first origin of everything and transcendent authority,. And, he is eternally Father by his relationship to his only begotten Son who, reciprocally is Son only in relation to his Father (Matthew 11:27). All fatherhood and motherhood is derived from him (Ephesians 3:14-15). In the Lord Jesus Christ, we are spiritually reborn and made new, and we become the adopted children of God (John 1:12-13; 3:3).

We can approach God confidently as a Father who loves us

Jesus teaches us to address God as "our Father" and to confidently ask him for the things we need to live as his sons and daughters. We can approach God our Father with confidence and boldness because Jesus Christ has opened the way to heaven for us through his atoning death and resurrection. When we ask God for help, he fortunately does not give us what we deserve. Instead, he responds with grace (his favor and blessing) and mercy (pardon and healing). He is kind and forgiving towards us and he expects us to treat our neighbor the same.

We can pray with expectant faith and trust in the Father's goodness

We can pray with expectant faith because our heavenly Father truly loves each one of us and he treats us as his beloved sons and daughters. He delights to give us what is good. His love and grace transforms us and makes us like himself. Through his grace and power we can love and serve one another as Jesus taught - with mercy, pardon, and loving-kindness.

Do you treat others as they deserve, or do you treat them as the Lord Jesus would with grace and mercy? Jesus' prayer includes a petition that we must ask God to forgive us in proportion as we forgive those who have wronged us (Matthew 6:14-15). God's grace frees us from every form of anger, resentment, envy, and hatred. Are you ready to forgive others as the Lord Jesus forgives you?

Parable of the late night guest

What can we expect from God, especially when we recognize that he doesn't owe us anything and that we don't deserve his grace and favor? Jesus used an illustration from the hospitality customs of his time to show how God is always ready to treat us with the best he has to offer. The rule of hospitality in biblical times required that every guest, whether stranger or friend, be warmly welcomed, refreshed (which often involved the washing of feet), and fed with the best food and drink available. It didn't matter what time of the day or night the guests might show up, it was your duty to stop what you were doing so you could give the guests the best care and shelter you could provide. If there wasn't adequate sleeping accommodation for both your guests and your family, the family slept outside under the stars. When guests showed up in a village, the whole community could be prevailed upon to provide whatever was needed.

Jesus' parable of the importunate and bothersome neighbor shows a worst case scenario of what might happen when an unexpected guest shows up in the middle of the night! The family awakens, unbolts the locked door to receive the guest, then washes the guest's feet, and the wife begins to prepare a meal. When the wife discovers that she has no bread to set before the guest, she prevails on her husband to go and get bread from a nearby family, who by now is also asleep with their door bolted shut. In a small village it would be easy for the wife to know who had baked bread that day. Bread was essential for a meal because it served as a utensil for dipping and eating from the common dishes. Asking for bread from one's neighbor was both a common occurrence and an expected favor. To refuse to give bread would bring shame because it was a sign of inhospitality.

God's generosity towards us

If a neighbor can be imposed upon and coerced into giving bread in the middle of the night, will not God, our heavenly Father and provider, also treat us with kind and generous care no matter how troubling or inconvenient the circumstances might appear? Jesus states emphatically, How much more will the heavenly Father give! St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430 AD) reminds us that "God, who does not sleep and who awakens us from sleep that we may ask, gives much more graciously." The Lord Jesus assures us that we can bring our needs to our heavenly Father who is always ready to give not only what we need, but more than we can ask. God gives the best he has. He freely pours out the blessing of his Holy Spirit upon us so that we may be filled with the abundance of his provision. Do you approach your heavenly Father with confidence in his mercy and kindness towards you?

Father in heaven, you have given me a mind to know you, a will to serve you, and a heart to love you. Give me today the grace and strength to embrace your holy will and fill my heart with your love that all my intentions and actions may be pleasing to you. Help me to be kind and forgiving towards my neighbor as you have been towards me. dailyscripture.net

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches us that God is our "Father" and just as a parent's love for their children is unlimited, so is God's love and care for us unlimited.

Did you know that each time a person in our area is in need of food and/or financial assistance with rent or utilities, that two Vincentians visited them in their homes as neighbors? They visit with the family, review their bills and establish how we can best be of assistance to them. The visit usually concludes with a family prayer.

Next weekend is our Quarterly SVdP Fifth Sunday collection. The funds we collect are used to directly assist the poor in our area and in the area of our sister conference at St. Matthew's Church. Your donations help to keep food on the table, lights on, and a roof over the heads of those in need.

Thank you for being a neighbor to the poor and needy.

Book of the Month Available Now!

With his prescient wit, wisdom, and fervor, Archbishop Fulton Sheen provides clarity amid propagandist lies and pagan societies united in the purpose to destroy. He reminds us why we must fear what kills the soul more than what kills the body. He exposes the false prophets and philosophies at work in the world and the many "believers" who no longer worship or act in accordance with their beliefs.

Sunday, 9:15 AM—12:15 PM

Accepting donations of gently loved Catholic books, Bibles and other religious items.

No matter when you might start to consider Catholicism, rest assured that God is present from the first moment of your spiritual journey. As you begin to feel a tugging at your heart or the call of "the still small voice within," God is there. In your questions and desire to know more, God is there.

We live in a secular culture that constantly bombards us with subtle messages that tell us we aren't good enough, we don't have enough, and we need something new to make us feel happy. But having more is never completely satisfying. When we begin to search for deeper meaning and purpose, we often discover a spiritual dimension inside ourselves that was never explored before. We may begin to long for an experience of God.

A search that includes Scripture and Church teachings shows us Catholicism is a truthful light. There is a strong biblical foundation to Catholic beliefs. For example, the Catholic belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist can be traced back to the earliest Christians and the Gospel of John (6:551-58). In fact, the teaching authority of the Church has continued in an unbroken succession for more than 2,000 years. The Eucharist and the historic continuity of the Church, among other truths, may strengthen your desire to know more about Catholicism.

If you want to learn more about becoming a Catholic, contact Shirley Smalley in the Parish Office. Our Initiation program accepts new members year round and we would love to hear from you.
