PASTOR'S NOTES

Labor Day

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This past week my family celebrated my sister's birthday at Lake Pleasant. If you are familiar with that area, you know that there is minimal, if any, cell phone reception. Whenever that happens, I realize how dependent I have become on my phone. It also reminded me that from time to time, I need to be less connected to my email, text messages and the phone that seem to keep my priestly duties front and center.

As I experienced that time of being "disconnected," I found it difficult to not be plugged in. I was nervous that some crisis was not being tended to, even though my capable Parochial Vicar, Fr. Lankeit, was at the parish and ready for duty. By the end of the day, I realized too, that constant multitasking between work and leisure isn't so leisurely. Even when I am doing my priestly ministry that I enjoy, I need to live a life that balances work, faith, leisure, family and so on. It was a timely experience as we approach Labor Day.

Labor Day observances began on September 5, 1882, in New York City, when ten thousand workers assembled for a parade. Workers and their families also celebrated with picnics, concerts and speeches. Labor Unions organized the event to demonstrate the strength of American workers and to seek improved working conditions—safety, reasonable hours and so on.

American workers were not alone. Pope Leo XIII released Rerum Novarum in 1891, the first of many papal encyclicals on work, as the industrial revolution swept across Europe. The relationship between employers and employees was changing dramatically. Some individuals had become wealthy, but most remained poor even though they worked hard. Pope Leo XIII's encyclical spoke of the condition of the working class and their dignity as human beings. These principals still apply today.

Labor Day is a day of rest and relaxation, but also a pause for reflection. How do we view our work as participating in our faith? Can we articulate our work's contribution to the common good of our community? Do we respect the human dignity of co-workers and employees by encouraging good working conditions and a living wage? How do we stand in solidarity with the workers throughout the world who lack humane working conditions that we value and respect as Americans?

Let us pray for those seeking work this Labor Day.

Prayer to St. Joseph for Those Seeking Work.

Dear Saint Joseph, you were yourself once faced with the responsibility of providing the necessities of life for Jesus and Mary. Look down with fatherly compassion upon the unemployed in their anxiety. Please help them to find gainful employment, so that this heavy burden of concern will be lifted from their hearts and that they can soon provide for those whom God has entrusted to their care. Help us to guard against bitterness and discouragement, so that we may emerge from this trial spiritually enriched and with even greater blessings from God. Amen.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Why does the Lord Jesus say we must 'hate' our families and even ourselves (Luke 14:26)? In Biblical times the expression 'to hate' often meant to 'prefer less'. Jesus used strong language to make clear that nothing should take precedence or first place over God. God our heavenly Father created us in his image and likeness to be his beloved sons and daughters. He has put us first in his love and concern for our well-being and happiness. Our love for him is a response to his exceeding love and kindness towards us. True love is costly because it holds nothing back from the beloved - it is ready to give all and sacrifice all for the beloved. God the Father gave us his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who freely offered up his life for us on the cross as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. His sacrificial death brought us pardon and healing, new life in the Spirit and peace with God.

The cost of following Jesus as his disciples

Jesus willingly embraced the cross, not only out of obedience to his Father's will, but out of a merciful love for each one of us in order to set us free from slavery to sin, Satan, and everything that would keep us from his love, truth, and goodness. Jesus knew that the cross was the Father's way for him to achieve victory over sin and death - and glory for our sake as well. He counted the cost and said 'yes' to his Father's will. If we want to share in his glory and victory, then we, too, must 'count the cost' and say 'yes" to his call to "take up our cross and follow him" as our Lord and Savior.

What is the 'way of the cross' for you and me? It means that when my will crosses with God's will, then his will must be done. The way of the cross involves sacrifice, the sacrifice of laying down my life each and every day for Jesus' sake. What makes such sacrifice possible and "sweet" for us is the love of God poured out for us in the blood of Christ who cleanses us and makes us a new creation in him. Paul the Apostle tells us that "God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). We can never outmatch God in his merciful love and kindness towards us. He always gives us more than we can imagine. Do you allow the Holy Spirit to fill your heart and transform your life with the overflowing love and mercy of God?

The wise plan ahead to avert failure and shame

What do the twin parables of the tower builder and a ruler on a war campaign have in common (Luke 14:28-32)? Both the tower builder and the ruler risked serious loss if they did not carefully plan ahead to make sure they could finish what they had begun. In a shame and honor culture, people want at all costs to avoid being mocked by their community for failing to complete a task which they had begun in earnest. This double set of parables echoes the instruction given in the Old Testament Book of Proverbs: "By wisdom a house is built" and "by wise guidance you can wage a war" to ensure victory (Proverbs 24:3-6).

In Jesus' time, every landowner who could afford it built a wall around his orchard or vineyard as a protection from intruders who might steal or destroy his produce. A tower was usually built in a corner of the wall and a guard posted especially during harvest time when thieves would likely try to make off with the goods. Starting a building-project, like a watchtower, and leaving it unfinished because of poor planning or insufficient funds would invite the scorn of the whole village. Likewise, a king who decided to wage a war against an opponent who was much stronger would be considered foolish if he did not come up with a plan that had a chance of success. Counting the cost and investing wisely are necessary conditions for securing a good return on the investment.

The great exchange

If you prize something of great value and want to possess it, it's natural to ask what it will cost you before you make a commitment to invest in it. Jesus was utterly honest and spared no words to tell his disciples that it would cost them dearly to be his disciples - it would cost them their whole lives and all they possessed in exchange for the new life and treasure of God's kingdom. The Lord Jesus leaves no room for compromise or concession. We either give our lives over to him entirely or we keep them for ourselves. Paul the Apostle reminds us, "We are not our own. We were bought with a price" (1 Corinthians 6:19b,20). We were once slaves to sin and a kingdom of darkness and oppression, but we have now been purchased with the precious blood of Jesus Christ who has ransomed us from a life of darkness and destruction so we could enter his kingdom of light and truth. Christ has set us free to choose whom we will serve in this present life as well as in the age to come - God's kingdom of light, truth, and goodness or Satan's kingdom of darkness, lies, and deception. There are no neutral parties - we are either for God's kingdom or against it.

Who do you love first - above all else?

The love of God compels us to choose who or what will be first in our lives. To place any relationship or any possession above God is a form of idolatry - worshiping the creature in place of the Creator and Ruler over all he has made. Jesus challenges his disciples to examine who and what they love first and foremost. We can be ruled and mastered by many different things - money, drugs, success, power or fame. Only one Master, the Lord Jesus Christ, can truly set us free from the power of sin, greed, and destruction. The choice is ours - who will we serve and follow - the path and destiny the Lord Jesus offers us or the path we choose in opposition to God's will and purpose for our lives. It boils down to choosing between life and death, truth and falsehood, goodness and evil. If we choose the Lord Jesus and put our trust in him, he will show us the path that leads to true joy and happiness with our Father.

Lord Jesus, you are my Treasure, my Life, and my All. There is nothing in this life that can outweigh the joy of knowing, loving, and serving you all the days of my life. Take my life and all that I have and make it yours for your glory now and forever. dailyscripture.org

Liturgical Choirs

The litugical choir season begins the first week of September. This year we have a few new music groups in which to participate, along with our returning choral programs.

Gloria Dei Adult Choir
Children's Choir (8-15 y.o.)
Schola Cantorum (audition only)
Men's Ensemble (teen-adult men)
Orchestra (violin, viola, cello, flute)
Resurrection Choir (sing at funerals)

Please contact Brina Ziemann at bziemann@saintbernadette.com for more information.

In today's Gospel, Jesus lays out the demands of following him, the great cost of discipleship. The Mission Statement of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul states: "Vincentians witness God's love by embracing all works of charity and justice…the Society makes no distinction in those served because, in them, Vincentians see the face of Christ."

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

We are looking for new members and volunteers to join us in service to others. If you are interested, call 480-905-4439 and leave us a message. We will call you back and discuss the various ways in which you may be able to serve beside us.

Vincentians are blessed by serving others because in the poor and needy we see Jesus. It is a truly humbling experience to know that you have been used to be the hands & feet of Christ.
