PASTOR'S NOTES

Hospitality Welcoming Strangers

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Maybe you have heard the critique that is lodged against Catholic parishes that goes something like this. "I went to Mass at that parish for 20 years and no one even said hello to me." One could ask why an isolated person didn't say hello either. But still, hospitality is an essential charism for any community that wishes to grow and flourish! I have heard from many visitors how blessed they felt by the warm welcome that have received at St. Bernadette.

The topic of hospitality brings me back to my seminary days. I began my seminary formation to become a priest at St. Meinrad in Southern Indiana. One of the first questions that new seminarians ask is, "Who is St. Meinrad anyway?" Born in 800, Meinrad was a Benedictine hermit-monk who longed to dedicate himself to prayer and solitude. But Meinrad's reputation as a wise and holy man led people to seek him out for counsel and prayer leading to a tension in his life between solitude and hospitality. Meinrad became convinced over time that he needed to share the fruit of his contemplation, so he welcomed and tended to guests' needs, both physical as well as spiritual.

One day, two robbers came to Meinrad's hermitage believing he had treasures hidden--gifts from the people he had counseled. Despite a premonition of his impending death, Meinrad invited the robbers in and offered them food and drink. When they discovered his life of poverty, the men became angry and murdered him and then fled in fear.

St. Meinrad's death earned him the title of "Martyr of Hospitality." As seminarians at St. Meinrad, we were taught the charism of hospitality which not only flowed from St. Meinrad's example but from the Rule of St. Benedict. The rule is the book of guidelines for monastic living written in 530 by St. Benedict. It is followed by monks still today. In the rule, St. Benedict says, "All guests who present themselves are to be welcomed as Christ, for he Himself will say: I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matt 25:35).

St. Bernadette is a large prospering Catholic community. It can also be intimidating when one first walks in the door. But when a newcomer invests in one or more of our parish ministries, it becomes an intimate spiritual home for many. All it takes is that first step to belong that often needs to be preceded by an invitation from you. I am so grateful for any parishioner who takes that extra effort to greet others with a smile and words of welcome.

It is critical to notice and seek out the stranger as St. Benedict directs his monks and welcome them as Christ. This isn't just the work of the priests or our hardworking staff. We all are called to welcome and invite newcomers to pray with us, to work with us in building the Kingdom and to even suggest ways in which they can become involved to make this community home.

Sometimes an invitation by you can change everything. Your willingness to direct a stranger to our office might inspire them to consider joining our parish family. Sometimes hearing a newcomer's story can make a lasting impression. Sometimes inviting a lost Catholic to Mass and then maybe to the Grotto for coffee and can be the impetus for greater faith and repentance of sins. Giving a stranger a tour or inviting them to consider a particular ministry can engender good will and a lasting relationship.

In short, we priests, though important in parish life, supplement what is sewn, one parishioner to another. Perhaps during this Lenten Season, we can pray about hospitality so that when strangers arrive in large numbers at Easter, for example, we will see ourselves as the hosts that we are, welcoming the Risen Lord hidden in the hearts of the stranger who longs to be one with us.

God Bless,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Fr. Don Kline".

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.
Pastor

PREPARING THE WAY

CLP

Making the Most of the Season of Lent

Be kind — don't just do what is right in front of you, instead go out of your way every day to do something for someone else that puts a smile on their face!

Volunteer — whether it is here at our parish or in the community. Use your hands and feet to help others.

Donate — whether it be things from your closets or garage or the money from that coffee you chose not to buy...give it away!

Slow down — 10 minutes of quiet time in prayer or meditation each day is something we can all fit into our daily schedule and it will change our lives...it's that simple. Try it, just 10 minutes each day with our Lord...you'll be amazed.

Extend an invitation — Too many inactive Catholics never receive a personal invitation to attend a service, mission or Mass. Make it a point to invite all you come across to experience Lent this season.

And Pray — pray whenever and wherever you are. Pray for those you like and those you don't. Pray whatever is in your heart...just pray!

THE LENTEN PRAYER OF ST. EPHREM THE SYRIAN

O LORD AND MASTER OF MY LIFE, KEEP FROM ME THE SPIRIT OF INDIFFERENCE AND DISCOURAGEMENT, LUST OF POWER AND IDLE CHATTER.

INSTEAD, GRANT TO ME, YOUR SERVANT, THE SPIRIT OF WHOLENESS
OF BEING, HUMBLE MINDEDNESS, PATIENCE AND LOVE.

O LORD AND KING, GRANT ME THE GRACE TO BE AWARE OF MY SINS
AND NOT TO JUDGE MY BROTHER; FOR YOU ARE BLESSED NOW AND EVER AND FOREVER. AMEN.

A Time for Prayer and Reflection

Scrutinies will be celebrated at 10:00 AM on March 17
Note readings for the masses listed above will be from Cycle A

The scrutinies are part of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA formerly known as RCIA). Last Sunday at the 10 AM mass, catechumens were sent to the Rite of Election by the bishop for the Easter sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist. These Elect, as they are now called to begin their final period of “purification and enlightenment” before Easter. On the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent we celebrate these special scrutinies for them.

The scrutinies are meant to help the Elect in two ways. First, the Elect are reminded that they are sinners (as we all are)—but that is not a cause for despair or discouragement. The reality that we celebrate at the Triduum is that we have salvation in Christ. By knowing the truth about ourselves we come to know our need for God—and thirst more and more for life-giving waters.

Second, the scrutinies are meant to help heal what is sinful and strengthen what is good in the Elect (RCIA #141). For the Elect, this final season of preparation can be a time of fatigue and temptation. They need our prayers. The scrutinies, then, are a way for us—the Church—to help support the Elect on this final leg of their journey to the font and table.

The readings from Cycle A of the Lectionary are used when the scrutinies are celebrated because the Gospel selections for those days have been traditionally associated with baptism: the Samaritan woman at the well, the healing of the man born blind, and the raising of Lazarus. By recounting these stories, we not only help the Elect understand where they are going—we remind ourselves of where we’ve come from. We are reminded that in baptism we are given to drink of life-giving waters, we are given new eyes of faith, and we are given new life. We are reminded that Christ is the living water, the light of the world, the resurrection and the life.

The special Mass prayers used on these days reinforce those powerful images. As we observe these Sundays of Lent, let us keep all of the Elect in prayer. Let us remember, too, the truth of the scrutinies: We are all sinners in need of healing and forgiveness; we all need the salvation offered by Christ Jesus. (Excerpts from an article Deacon Agnoli, the director of liturgy, Diocese of Davenport.)
