Pastor's Notes

Second Week of Lent

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The foundational call of Christians to charity is a frequent theme of the Gospels. During Lent, we are asked to focus more intently on "almsgiving," which means donating money or goods to the poor and performing other acts of charity. As one of the three pillars of Lenten practice, almsgiving is "a witness to fraternal charity" and "a work of justice pleasing to God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2462).

Our Lord gives us three essential occasions for spiritual growth during the Lenten Season--prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. I have already addressed the importance of prayer and fasting in previous bulletins. Today I want to focus on the third of the three pillars: Almsgiving.

The word for alms comes from a Greek word that when translated means mercy. So, to give alms means to show mercy. One of the attributes of God is that of mercy. Since God is merciful, we must show mercy too. One of the great ways we show mercy is by giving to the poor. Giving to those in need is listening and following God's command to love our neighbor as ourselves.

If you are honest with yourself, you will realize that you too are in need. We are all in need of healing from something that we have done or that was done to us. The remedy for the healing we seek comes from God in a variety of ways. The seven Sacraments offer hope and healing as they draw us closer to God and who He created us to be.

The Sacraments are expression of God's mercy and love for us His children. When we give alms, we are offering only what God has given us. However, if you neglect the needs of others, it is a grave sin against charity because you are acting in a way that is contrary to who God made you to be. We are made for love. We are made to love.

While almsgiving may seem straightforward, you may still wonder how exactly you can practice it this Lent. To guide us, Mother Church outlines 7 corporal—or bodily—works of mercy, as well as 7 spiritual works of mercy.

The Corporal Works of Mercy are:

- To feed the hungry
- To give drink to the thirsty
- To clothe the naked
- To shelter the homeless
- To visit the sick
- To ransom the captive
- To bury the dead

The Spiritual Works of Mercy are:

- To instruct the ignorant
- To counsel the doubtful
- To admonish sinners
- To bear wrongs patiently
- To forgive offences willingly
- To comfort the afflicted
- To pray for the living and the dead

God Bless,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Fr. Don Kline".

Pope Leo XIV's Lenten Challenge

I would like to invite you to a very practical and frequently unappreciated form of abstinence:

That of refraining from words that offend and hurt our neighbor. Let us begin by disarming our language, avoiding harsh words and rash judgement, refraining from slander and speaking ill of those who are not present and cannot defend themselves.

Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Jesus, thank You for being truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please lead me to a personal encounter with You in Your Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Thank You for desiring to spend time with me in Eucharistic Adoration. I ask You to send Your Holy Spirit upon each member of our parish, so that we will respond to Your invitation and make a commitment to meet You, Our Lord and King, in a weekly hour of Eucharistic Adoration. In Your Most Holy Name, I pray.

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, pray for us.

Amen.

Every Holy Hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it is recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity! - St. Teresa of Calcutta

The spiritual lives of our families are strengthened through our Holy Hour. - St. John Paul II

The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night He went into agony. Not for activity did He plead but for an hour of companionship. - Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Perpetual Adoration extends its influence far beyond the individual adorers, touching their homes and families and reaching out to the parish community and beyond. - St. Pope Paul VI

Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Eucharist will obtain a more abundant measure of grace. - St. Alphonsus Ligouri

1. For the Individual

Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament deepens personal friendship with Christ. In silence, the soul is strengthened, sins are repented, vocations are discerned, and peace grows. Regular adoration increases faith, hope, charity, and trust in God's providence.

2. For the Family

When one family member prays faithfully, grace touches the whole household. Adoration brings healing to marriages, patience in parenting, unity in times of tension, and protection from spiritual harm. Families rooted in prayer become schools of love and forgiveness.

3. For the Parish

A parish with perpetual adoration places Christ at its center. From the Eucharist flows renewal: more frequent Confession, stronger Mass attendance, new vocations, deeper reverence, and greater charity among parishioners. It becomes a spiritual powerhouse for evangelization.

4. For the Entire World

Because the Eucharist is Christ Himself, every hour of adoration is an act of intercession for humanity. Graces obtained before the Blessed Sacrament can bring conversions, peace, protection from evil, and mercy upon nations. Hidden prayer before Jesus sustains the Church and mysteriously supports the salvation of souls everywhere.
