Pastor's Notes

3rd Sunday of Easter

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The two disciples on the road to Emmaus are grieving the death of the one in whom they had placed all their hope. They are suffering. The death of Jesus left them doubtful. The one who would liberate them from their suffering was brutally murdered and their hearts were broken, leaving them to deal with pain and disappointment. The disciples who once had faith in Jesus the Messiah, now believe that everything they hoped for in Him has ended with the cross. It is as if their joy has been stolen.

Perhaps you have been, or are currently, going through challenges that have left you feeling like the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Perhaps you are grieving the death of someone you love very much. This can be extremely painful especially if you didn't get to say goodbye. Maybe you are experiencing financial challenges that have caused you to be afraid about your future. You may have been in a relationship where you spent so much time and energy only to find yourself alone and let down by the one you love. There are times in all our lives when God seems very close but there are also those moments of spiritual dryness and moral crisis that can seemingly cripple our walk with Our Lord, and cause us to feel like God has abandoned us. In those moments, it can be so difficult to trust and so easy to walk away from it all.

There is hope. Today, our Gospel reminds us that Jesus walks with us in our struggles. Jesus suffered, and He knows pain and sorrow. He experienced it all and more. But there is always hope. Just as Jesus walked with those despondent and despairing disciples, He encourages and accompanies each of us, especially in our sorrow and our suffering. Our challenge is to not ignore Him. Saint Paul, in the Letter to the Ephesians, affirms that Christians cannot live like pagans who live without God and without hope (cf. Eph 2:12). Let us not forget that although everything seems to end, Jesus is always there to guide us because He is alive, and once resurrected, He never dies again. Because of Jesus, death is dead and that means hope is alive.

We see this new life in Christ in the men, women, and children who received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil. Their faith and trust in Our Lord, their commitment despite the struggles and setbacks, their love for God and His Church, inspire me and all who are blessed to know them. These newest members of the Catholic faith are a blessing and a sign that the Holy Spirit is moving among God's people and inspiring hearts and minds to turn to Christ whose love is never ending. May our new brothers and sisters always know of our love and prayers for them. May they know they belong to God and His family. Our Lord walks with you now and always. You are never alone.

God Bless,

The Rosary, Explained

Christians have used beads to mark the recitation of prayers since ancient times. In the 12th century, the Rosary emerged as a meditative devotion centering on significant moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary. In the words of St. Leo XIII, “there is no more excellent way of praying.”

The Rosary is traditionally attributed to a Marian vision received by St. Dominic de Guzman (1170-1221). Though scholarship on this point is uncertain, the Dominican Order was undoubtedly crucial in establishing and evangelizing the Rosary as a devotional prayer.

Over the centuries, the formula of the devotion eventually took the shape of 50 Hail Marys divided into five “decades,” with each decade focused on a different mystery. The Church has defined the Joyful Mysteries (to be recited on Saturdays and Mondays), the Glorious Mysteries (Sundays and Wednesdays), the Sorrowful Mysteries (Tuesdays and Fridays), and most recently the Luminous Mysteries (to be recited on Thursdays).

St. Vincent de Paul Quarterly Second Collection April 25th & 26th

The St. Bernadette SVdP Conference serves the poor and needy who live within our boundaries. Additionally, our Conference shares our food collections and time with St. Matthew's Parish an inner city Church with little resources or members to help serve the vast number of the poor who live in their area.

Our Conference uses most of the funds we receive to help pay rents and utility bills for individuals and families in our area who are experiencing situational poverty. Most need help because of a temporary or recent health issue, loss of a job, or death of a family member. Your generosity allows them to keep a roof over their heads and the electricity on until things get better.

Last quarter the Conference expended over $30,000 in rental assistance and just under $4,000 to help neighbors with utility bills.

You may donate during the second collection, online through the parish website, or by dropping checks off at the Parish Office.

All donations are appreciated. Your generosity makes a real difference in the lives of our neighbors in need. Thank you for helping us help others.

The Culture of Life Ministry's CarePortal Initiative aims to serve more children and families in need this year. We accept new or gently used furniture, pack-n-plays, high chairs, and strollers. To donate items or if you have a truck and are interested in helping deliver furniture, please contact Kelly Sarotte at sarottekelly@gmail.com.

THURSDAYS

General Recovery @ 6:30pm

EVERY OTHER THURSDAY

Family & Friends @ 7pm

Catholic in Recovery provides healing from addictions, compulsions, and unhealthy attachments. Family members impacted by a loved one's addiction are also encouraged to attend.

Meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church. Join others in recovery as we overlap scripture from Sunday's Mass readings, liturgical themes, and recovery topics with honest discussion and prayer. Confidentiality is protected.
