Pastor's Notes

4th Sunday of Easter

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I know I am getting ahead of myself but I just can't help it. It is exciting news. On Saturday, May 16, our Dean, Fr. Jess Ty V.F. will visit us to confer the sacrament of Confirmation on young people from our school and our family catechesis program. This is a significant event as these young people will be sealed with the strength of the Holy Spirit as well as receive Our Lord in Holy Communion for the first time. I invite you to participate in the Holy Mass that will be celebrated at 10:00am.

We also look forward to Pentecost on May 24th where most of our Candidates who have been in formation for the past year or more will receive their sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. I am especially grateful to the Catechists who were a key part of their formation. I give thanks to God for Shirley Smalley, Director of Sacramental Preparation and Infant Baptism and Patrick Klein, Director of Family Catechesis & Evangelization. The time and effort they offer to help in the preparation and formation of those who are called to full communion in the Catholic Church is invaluable and a blessing.

I also want to thank the teachers from our grade school who do an amazing job of forming our young people. The time and effort it takes to walk with our children as they fall in love with Jesus is worth every sacrifice. We are blessed to have Kim Klein, the Director of Youth Development, Amanda Cramer, the Coordinator of High School Youth, Ashley Kaschl, the Young Adult Coordinator, and Tamara Rose, the Assistant to Family Catechesis as part of our team leading our youth and young adults closer to Christ. Their hard work, dedication and faithfulness brings Christ to others and others to Christ. Lastly, I give thanks to God for our volunteers. Their dedication and sacrifice inspire us all to be better stewards with the gifts that God has given us. God bless you for all your efforts.

Lastly, please keep our 8th graders, the Class of 2026 in your prayers. As they prepare to graduate, they are entering a world filled with many options and opportunities but also obstacles and temptations. Our young people have so much to offer. They bring new enthusiasm and hope. Their joy and zeal need to be encouraged and cherished by us. They need to know they are not replaceable, they are unique, and they are loved by God and by us. Class of 2026, Our Lord walks with you now and always. You are never alone.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline

Humility, Explained

“If anyone wishes to be first,” Christ told the Apostles in the Gospel of Mark, “he must become the last of all and the servant of all.” (Mark 9:35).

True humility does not require us to ignore, underestimate or hide our gifts — it merely demands that we use these gifts rightly, with the knowledge that they are from our Creator and meant for His glory, not our own. “Man is a beggar before God,” said St. Augustine.

The Blessed Mother is the perfect model of this, and her Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55) is a blueprint for a life lived in joyful humility.

Humility, says the Catechism, is also the key to a fruitful prayer life: “Humility is the foundation of prayer. Only when we humbly acknowledge that ‘we do not know how to pray as we ought,’ are we ready to receive freely the gift of prayer.” (CCC 2559)

A PRAYER FOR THIS GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

Lord Jesus, you brought us to salvation by your paschal mystery. We pray for our pastor, Father Kline, that he may be a true reflection of you—the Good Shepherd. Guard him, guide him, and grant him joy in his ministry. We also pray for more shepherds in our diocese. Amen.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

A Catholic vocation is a divine call from God to a specific way of life: Marriage, priesthood, consecrated life, or single life. They are designed for holiness and service. Rooted in Baptism, it is a personal mission to love God and neighbor, bringing individuals closer to heaven while utilizing their unique gifts.

Married Life: A sacrament where a couple reflects Christ's love, building a "domestic church" and raising children in faith. Within this vocation is the Diaconate, in which married men are called to be Deacons. These men receive the first degree of The Sacrament of Holy Orders and are ordained for service in three areas: the Word, the Liturgy, and charity.

Priesthood: Through the sacrament of Holy Orders, these are men who serve the Church as ordained ministers (diocesan or religious) by celebrating the sacraments, teaching the faith, and shepherding the faithful.

Consecrated Life: Sisters, brothers, or priests who take vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, often serving within a community or in contemplative life.

Single Life: A committed life of service, allowing a person to serve God and the Church in the world.

12-STEP RECOVERY

Catholic in Recovery provides healing from addictions, compulsions, and unhealthy attachments. Family members impacted by a loved one's addiction are also encouraged to attend.

Meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church. Join others in recovery as we overlap scripture from Sunday's Mass readings, liturgical themes, and recovery topics with honest discussion and prayer. Confidentiality is protected.
