Pastor's Notes

Our Call as Catholic Citizens

Part I

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Catholics are called to participate in meaningful and active ways in the public square as citizens. This happens in a particular and meaningful way through voting. Our public life as a Catholic serves the common good of society and respects fundamental moral truths of our faith. At the same time, the Church's role is primarily to form consciences and offer moral judgment, not to replace the State or to run political power.

But what about the separation of Church and State? This phrase has been used to claim that the State should be totally neutral in practice or that the State should not recognize or protect religion at all or treat religion as something the state must suppress. However, Vatican II teaches that religious freedom includes protection from coercion. The truth is that the human person has a right to religious freedom, meaning immunity from coercion so that no one is forced to act against conscience. To that end, government must protect religious freedom through just laws and should help create favorable conditions for religious life. It is wrong for government to impose or repress religion by force or fear, or to hinder people from joining or leaving a religious community. In other words: whatever "separation" means in a country, Catholics should not understand it as a right for government to destroy or repress religion.

What about Catholics and politics? The Church has a long and heroic history of mixing faith with politics. Among the saints, the Church actually venerates many men and women who served God through their generous commitment to politics and government. For example, Saint Thomas More, who was proclaimed Patron of Statesmen and Politicians. He gave witness to the faith by his martyrdom as he sought to preserve the dignity of the human conscience. Though subjected to various forms of psychological pressure, Saint Thomas More refused to compromise, never forsaking his fidelity to legitimate authority and institutions. He taught by his life and his death that man cannot be separated from God, nor politics from morality.

The Church teaches that the Gospel is not meant to stay private. This right of the Church is a duty, because she cannot forsake this responsibility without denying herself and her fidelity to Christ: "Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel!" (1 Cor 9:16). Because faith has public relevance and because injustice corrupts persons and societies, the Church cannot remain indifferent to social matters. Quite the opposite. The Church has the right and duty to announce moral principles about the social order and to make judgments where required by the rights of the human person or the salvation of souls. But this does not mean the Church replaces civil government. The Church's proper function is to instruct and illuminate the consciences of the faithful, especially those involved in political life. The right and duty of Catholics and all citizens to seek the truth with sincerity and to promote and defend, by legitimate means, moral truths concerning society, justice, freedom, respect for human life and the other rights of the person.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline

Why Catholics Should Vote

A Catholic has a moral obligation to vote according to a well-formed Catholic conscience

Clergy and Bishops: Teach, form, discern, and uphold moral order.

Laity: Act, implement, and incarnate these principles in public life with mutual communication that supports the Church's mission to sanctify the temporal order. (AA §7)

Catholic Catechism & Non-Negotiables

(CCC 2240) Submission to authority and co-responsibility for the common good make it morally obligatory to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote, and to defend one's country.

(CCC 1915–1917) Apply Gospel and Church teaching concretely in civic, economic, and political life; vote, serve, legislate, and advocate for the common good. To protect what the Catholic Church considers non-negotiables, as well as matters requiring prudential judgement.

Right to Life

(CCC 2270) Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person, including the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.

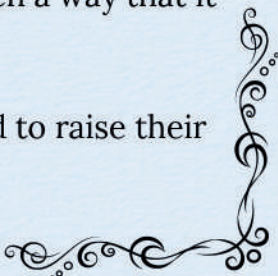

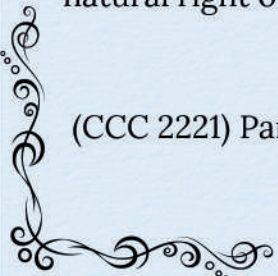

Marriage, Family & Parental Rights

(CCC 2211) The political community has a duty to honor the family, to assist it, and to ensure especially the freedom to establish a family, have children, and bring them up in keeping with the family's own moral and religious convictions. The right and duty of parents to educate their children are primordial and inalienable.

Religious Liberty & Freedom

(CCC 2108) The fight for religious liberty is neither a moral license to adhere to error nor a supposed right to error, but rather a natural right of the human person to civil liberty. This natural right ought to be acknowledged in the juridical order of society in such a way that it constitutes a civil right.

(CCC 2221) Parents have the freedom to profess their faith, to hand it on, and to raise their children in it, with the necessary means and institutions.

A Journey of Faith

Do you know someone who is not Catholic but is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith?

Do you have a friend or relative that has been attending mass for years but has never taken steps towards becoming a Catholic?

Do you have gifts, talents and treasures that can be used to help support our initiation process?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is the process that initiates adults who are unbaptized, those baptized in another Christian faith, and Catholics in need of receiving the completion of their sacraments.

Our program accepts participants year round and all are welcomed. We currently have participants ranging in age from their early twenties up to retirees. We would love to hear from you.

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, his foster father. Bless all fathers and grandfathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience, give them ability to love in a way that reflects your love. Support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to you for love and salvation. Help us to love them in a way that would bring honor to You and them. Bless and heal all those wounded by the imperfections of their fathers and grant an eternal rest to our fathers you have called from this life to yourself, through Jesus Christ Lord.

Amen

EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION

JUNE 7, 2026

Open your home to the Blessed Mother

WHAT: The Pilgrim Virgin Home Visitation is a spiritual program in which a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a 28” replica of Our Lady of Fatima, visits the homes of parishioners. It is a travelling sacramental offered by the Legion of Mary for installation in your home to create an opportunity for families to embrace and deepen their faith thru prayer, reflection, and devotion to Mary.

WHY: The Pilgrim Virgin Mary Home Visitation is an aid to help us respond to the requests made by the Blessed Mother during her apparitions at Fatima. The essence of her requests is threefold:

- 🌹 Return to God - turn away from sin and obey the Ten Commandments.
- 🌹 Pray the Rosary - offer prayers daily for peace in our hearts, homes, and the world.
- 🌹 Make Reparation for Sins – undertake acts of penance and sacrifice.

HOW: To schedule the visitation, contact Catherine Smith, President of the Legion of Mary - Our Lady of Lourdes Praesidium at (403) 580-9605, and the statue will be brought to your residence and installed with a beautiful prayer ceremony by members of the Legion of Mary with you. The statue may remain in your home for at least two weeks. At the end of the visitation, the members of the Legion of Mary will return to pray and recite “Mary’s Farewell” with you. Then our Blessed Mother is once again ready to travel to another home of one of her children.

WHO: Parishioners of St. Bernadette Catholic Church may invite the Blessed Mother to their home.
